Mr. and Mrs. Stansfield Turner

Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Turner,

Following one of the Ten Commandments, Nancy and I are planning to honor Nancy's parents at a reception on June 2, 1980, from 5:30 until 7:30 p.m., in ~~Senator Howard Baker's Minority Office S-207.~~ (see card.)

We hope you will be able to come. Julie and Paul Moore have just retired after over 43 years with DuPont. They are also celebrating their 43rd wedding anniversary this month.

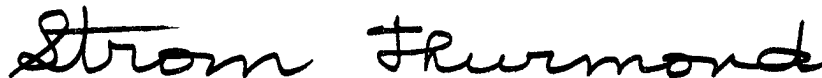

To give you a little background on the Moores, who have family and friends throughout the U.S., they grew up in the mining community of Butte, Montana. Both are graduates of the University of Washington in Seattle. They have lived in Woodbury, New Jersey; Birmingham, Alabama; Memphis, Tennessee; Denver, Colorado; and Wilmington, Delaware; and presently in Aiken, South Carolina, where they have maintained their home for the past 27 years.

One measure of a couples' contribution in life is their children. In addition to Nancy, they have a daughter Ardean who did undergraduate work at Duke University, attended medical school at the University of Kentucky in Lexington, and is a practicing psychiatrist in San Francisco, California. Their son, Paul, attended Purdue, Duke, and received his master's degree in Chemistry at Dartmouth. He is President of the Lebanon Airport Development Corporation in New Hampshire.

We may be prejudiced but one of the reasons we are proud of Julie and Paul is that they are the only grandparents of our four children. We hope you will join us as we honor them and wish them a healthy, happy retirement.

With kindest regards and best wishes,

Sincerely,

Strom Thurmond
